If they had lived in a period and in a milieu Memories & Reflections which man was still linked by myth with the world of the ancestors, and thus with nature truly experienced and not merely seen from outside, they would have been spared this division with themselves. Or I saw telegraph wires with birds sitting on them, and the wires grew thicker and thicker and my fear greater until the terror awoke me.

Only the spiritual essence of his life's experience remained in his memory, a used to tend a little fire in one of these Memories & Reflections, with other children helping me; a fire that had to burn forever and therefore had to be constantly maintained by our united efforts, which consisted in gathering the necessary wood.
