One such group was animated by Coposu and reportedly envisaged a democratic cabinet, with Gheorghe Zane as Premier. From then on, Horthy was the firm and undisputed leader of the country, a situation that would certainly have given him the means to change the orientation of the regime.

Under his successor, Hungary not only declared war on the USSR, but also commi

Soon after his victory, the new King informed Maniu that he did not intend to honor his promises, causing a rift between monarch and government; Maniu resigned, was persuaded to return within days, and then resigned for good in October, handing the premiership to party colleague Gheorghe Mironescu. The party's stances were revised by Maniu in when he condemned the Soviets while castigating war beyond Bessarabia's border as " aggression ". Kallay was quite aware of Hungary's desperate situation as Soviet forces drew closer to the country's FASCISM IN ROMANIA 1918-1944 borders.

XXIV, Issue 1, p. Radu Ioanid, The Holocaust in Romania. Internal communications were poor, damage from World War I had been extensive, and with few exceptions agriculture was devoid of machinery or other modern farming technologies.
