For example, at a Socialist rally in Oakland, after his return from the Far East, he publicly declared his hatred of the Oriental races, and in his science fiction story "The Unparalleled Invasion" the West destroys the Chinese with a bacteriological bomb. London seems to imply here, however, as he will in Part Five of the novel, that, however wild an animal might be, under proper training and proper care, he can be trained to obey man's orders.

Here again is more proof of the trio's ineptitude--and what is far worse is the How to write a great review. Skip to main content.
