Carey pays particular attention to the role of the Surakarta court in the affair, but there is much more detail – including an account of the mango party, and the transcripts of the subsequent trials – in the official papers dealing with the aftermath of the episode. In the new Napoleonic administration in Holland had disbanded the VOC and brought the Dutch East Indies under direct state control, and staunchly pro-Napoleon Dutchmen like Janssens had been placed in charge.

By the end of the Napoleonic Wars were over, and Britain was happily arranging
It is probably the single best traditionalist Raffles biography for general readers. However, his actions in Java did leave a lasting impact, primarily the splitting of the Keraton. Captain Edward Wallis Hoare. But thanks to later biographers, he is usually remembered today as a liberal scholar and a visionary reformer, an acceptable exception to the ugly rule of imperialism, celebrated for the founding of Singapore.
