You simply cannot know what it is like to be a Chinese adoptee - and I don't mean that in an exclusive or insulting way. The Jakarta Post. I thought it was supposed to be funny. I meanshehadonepicmomentwhenshebasicallytoldGirlinReverseclassand Ralph isn't perfect, but he does his best to support Lily, and I found myself feeling really sorry for him during a certain part near the end. I just did not really care for . I liked the story, and the way art was integrated throughout the story-telling about the main character: Lillian goes through some emotionally difficult discoveries, but finds the courage to continue searching for her truth, and comes out stronger for it.
