Beyond Borders is a romantic-drama film about aid workers, directed by Martin Campbell and starring Angelina Jolie, Clive Owen, Teri Polo and Kate Ashfield. The original music score was composed by James Horner. Reflecting Jolie's real-life interest in promoting humanitarian relief, the film witnesses a fiery plea delivered by an intruder - a renegade humanitarian.

Because he proved beyond the shadow of a doubt that psychedelics could totally short-circuit all that process of opening your mind. The little book thus produced The People at War permits us to look in that laboratory where bombs, barbed-wire entanglements, suffocating gases, and the baseness of those in power, had been fashioning for long months the consciousness of several million Russian peasants, and where along with human bones age-old prejudices were cracking. All this became evident after two or three months. Just do it!! Or, you may use the navigation to find your page. Show: 14 25 50 75
