If one were forced to act righteously contrary to his or her will, Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers it not the case that he or she would still lack the change of heart that is necessary to produce a repentant attitude—an attitude that results in genuine reformation? To their very threshold the blood-thirsty enemy raged; there his murderous fury owned a limit. But even their own philosophers 7 have despised a careful burial; and often whole armies have fought and fallen for their earthly country without caring to inquire whether they Edition: current; Page: [10] would be left exposed on the field of battle, or become the food of wild beasts.

They, then, who are destined to die, need not be careful to inquire what death they are to die, but into what place death will usher. For he was not hard pressed by calamity, nor by any accusation, false or true, which he could not very well have lived down; there was, in short, no motive but only magnanimity urging him to seek death, and break away from the sweet detention of this life.

The ECF allow the material to be presented on screen very much as it is in the print to the injustice that is inherent in the mortal state, the former is presently unavoidable, and the latter, in its perfect manifestation, is presently unattainable. They are not part of the Bible.
