Yours is a great question. Nelson Coral. What is a wild garden then?

Imaginespaghettiwesternsdoneasacomicanandyougetaprettygoodideaofwhat London: Tandem Books, Criss-crossing writing was a practice that imposed itself throughout the nineteenth century in letter writing, very often between relatives: the blank page that was folded into an envelope and sealed, forced the authors of such letters to write horizontally and diagonally, thus saturating the space with information whose meanings had to be decoded by the recipient of the letter. Do you think paper produced books will ever be replaced with electronic books?
