The editors of this important document have performed a meticulous codicological, palaeographic and toponymic study of it, but they have not specified the total number of farms mentioned, nor have they calculated their overall size in jovades, two of the first pieces of information that researchers check. Pobla de Vallbona Coll. We have decided not to use the Catalan versions of the names of the Aragonese nobles or those with roots in Aragon in order to clearly distinguish them from the Catalans and Valencians, given the importance of this issue for much of the period examined in this article. Reprinted from edition.

The countship, nestled in the heart of the Pyrenees near Andorra, was an antec... experiments with the more advanced linear Gothic, or the 14th century linear Gothic, offer us a wide range of significant works in all spheres of painting, although what truly stand out are murals, a creative sphere which had been quite prominently present in the preceding periods but had lost prominence as the 14th century progressed and large altarpieces took over the walls of churches.
