Arzum Uzun – 'In this story I am the poet You're the poetry.'

Quote by Arzum Uzun: "In this story I am the poet You're the poetry."

And I have a loving heart. I am a poet. But I will not fill a stanza with meaningless rhymes. And I will not simply speak of love. As if injustice does.

Dear father of our country, so alive you must have lied incessantly to be immediate, here are your bones crossed on my breast like a rusty flintlock, a pirate's flag, bravely specific and ever so light in the misty glare of a crossing by water in winter to a shore other than that the bridge reaches.
It's not too late, so let's create A life that makes dreams come true.
